IMPORTANT

Don't laminate the ticket!
The ticket is only valid in connection with a valid student identity card!

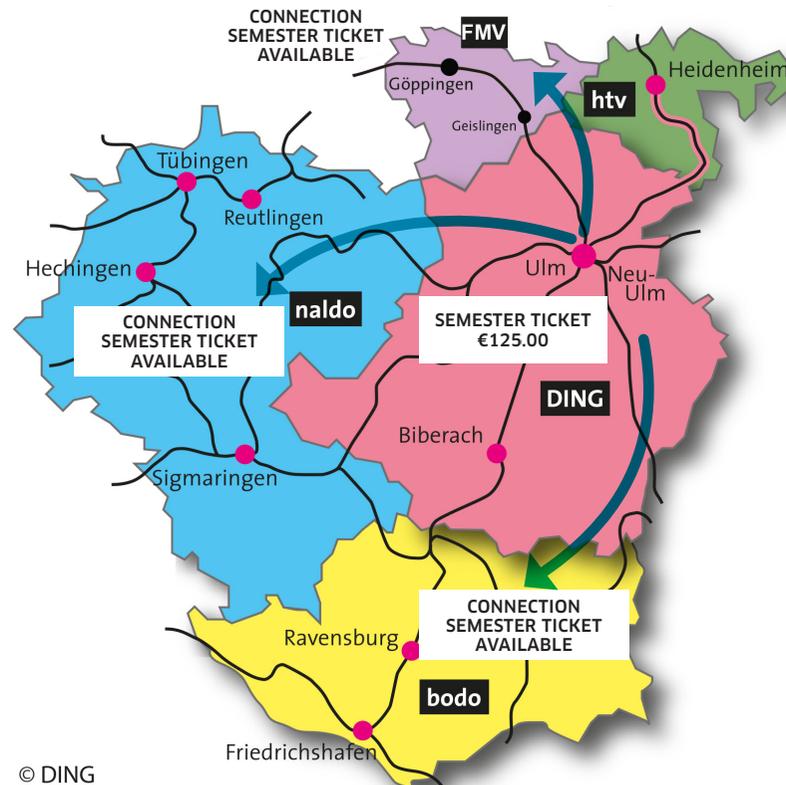

At the beginning of each semester all students have to pay the "Studierendenwerks" fee. This fee includes the solidarity fee for the semester ticket (basic ticket). This solidarity fee is about €29,50 for students of the University of Ulm and the University of Applied Sciences Biberach and about €30,50 for students of the Technical University Ulm.

The solidarity fee (basic ticket) includes:

- students of all mentioned universities are allowed to ride free of charge from Monday to Friday from 6 p.m., at the weekends and on public holidays (all day long) in the entire DING sector, this includes also the interim rate area Heidenheim.
- from Monday to Friday from 6 p.m., at the weekends and on public holidays - 1 person can join at the amount of a child's ticket - a student of the above-mentioned universities with a valid student identity card.
- no add-on for the overnight buses.
- free ride for students of the Technical University Ulm between the bus stop "Örlinger Straße" and "Egertweg".

Your actual student identity card is valid as ticket. Also you should always have with you an official document, for example your passport. So you can prove in any case that you are entitled to use the public transport, if it's demanded.

Semester Ticket

If you also want to use the public transports during the peak time, you have to pay €125.00 per semester for the original semester ticket (current status 01.2019).

If you have enrolled for the first time for your studies or you are a newly matriculated student and you choose Ulm as your primary residence (Resident's Registration Office), the City of Ulm gives you a semester ticket for free. This means, you just have to pay the solidarity fee. You can apply for this free semester ticket at the „ServiceCenter Neue Mitte“ (SWU traffiti) in „Neue Straße 79“ in the city, not at the Info-Point. Please bring your ID.
